A classic example of this is “Seven” Torkington Road, Wilmslow which was commissioned by Aus-Bore Homes.

Combining the best in truly original design, space planning and build quality, “Seven” – a circa 7,800 sq.ft. two storey dwelling – offers the ultimate in stylish family living. Set in a half acre, beautifully landscaped plot on one of the best roads and most sought after addresses in Wilmslow, this six bedroom / six bathroom home features exceptional quality throughout.

Contemporary landscaping to the front and rear complements the modern, contemporary take on the ‘arts and crafts’ style, which is currently the most popular of styles. Steeply sweeping pitched roofs, classic gables, natural stone, with quality roofing and facing brickwork all lend themselves to create one of the most attractive properties that NC Homes Architects has designed.

Every luxury has been thoughtfully encapsulated into the design of “Seven” and this is immediately apparent when you enter the house. The impressive entrance boasts a bespoke, handmade, oak-panelled front door which tastefully sets the tone for the opulence displayed throughout “Seven”. Incorporating the most up-to-date technological capabilities from the intelligent under floor heating to the state-of-the-art fully controllable media, lighting and security system, to the 40 ft. swimming pool and climate controlled leisure complex, which includes a gymnasium and changing rooms, “Seven” anticipates every requirement and more. It is simply an intelligent home!

“Seven” features striking individual craftsmanship which is showcased throughout from the handmade kitchen with luxurious granite work tops to the French polished internal doors and the drawing room’s handmade stone fireplace.

The property is set in beautifully landscaped gardens and has a triple integral garage. It also includes magnificent entertaining spaces, superb informal kitchen / breakfast / day room, cinema room, galleried entrance hallway, study and three of the six bedrooms each encompass a dressing room. “Seven” certainly offers everything the discerning home owner desires!
